

Why Kairos University Matters to the Church

As one of the largest, most diverse accredited competency-based theological education systems worldwide, Kairos University is transforming how ministry leaders are trained. With over 4,000 students, mentors, and partners from 48+ countries and 70+ denominations, Kairos represents a global movement renewing theological education for the 21st century church.

48+

Countries

Global presence across continents

70+

Denominations

Uniting diverse Christian traditions

2:1

Student-Faculty Ratio

Ensuring personalized education

Founded on discipleship principles, Kairos provides hands-on, mentor-driven training deeply rooted in local church contexts. With a remarkable student-to-faculty ratio of 2:1, students receive intimate, personalized education while engaging with a global network spanning 45+ countries, 100+ partner organizations, and 1,500+ mentors.

Affordable & Accessible

Monthly subscription pricing breaks barriers of traditional seminary debt, making theological education available to all called to ministry

Faith & Vocation Integration

Deep integration empowers students to flourish both in ministry and marketplace settings

Rich Legacy & Innovation

Nearly 170 years of educational excellence, evolving from Sioux Falls Seminary's vision since 1858

With over 3,500 alumni actively serving worldwide, Kairos continues producing Christ-centered leaders equipped for church planting, pastoral care, and social impact. Students engage locally with face-to-face mentorship while connecting globally with diverse Christian communities – truly a transformative approach to ministry preparation.